

“I don’t know what to call the top of the Mark.”

“That’s it,” they told him. “What’s it?”

“Top of the Mark”

In 1939 hotelier and owner George D. Smith transformed the 19th floor penthouse suite of the Mark Hopkins Hotel into a glass walled cocktail lounge with 360-degree views of San Francisco.

A “must-see” destination for visitors from all over the world who come for the breathtaking views of San Francisco and the Bay, and perhaps even for a rendezvous with nostalgia.

During World War II, servicemen would buy and leave a bottle in the care of the bartender so that the next soldier from their squadron could enjoy a drink. The only requirement being that whoever had the last sip would buy the next bottle...

...and the tradition continues today!

SQUADRON SHOT

Veterans & Military Personnel with a valid ID can enjoy a free shot from a squadron bottle!

Please ask a server or manager for details

Purchase a bottle from the bartender to add to the collection and don’t forget to sign the log book with your message to fellow servicemen and women.
